OVERVIEW

Malaysia's National Sustainability Reporting Framework (NSRF) has made IFRS Sustainability Disclosure Standards a strategic priority for boards, finance leaders, and sustainability teams. This 2-day programme equips participants with the practical knowledge to understand IFRS S1 and S2, assess climate-related risks and opportunities, identify material issues, and build an actionable compliance roadmap aligned with Malaysian reporting requirements.

OBJECTIVES

- Understand the NSRF landscape and phased compliance direction in Malaysia
- Interpret IFRS S1 core requirements and financial materiality
- Apply IFRS S2 concepts including climate risks, scenario thinking, and transition issues
- Practise materiality assessment, value chain mapping, and GHG categorisation
- Build an 18-month action plan for reporting readiness and board oversight
